Anna Hall, Paralegal
Williamson County Schools
1320 West Main St.
Franklin, TN., 37064

Dear Ms. Hall,

This is an Open Records Request. The Tennessee Open Records Act is a series of laws designed to guarantee that the public has access to public records of government bodies at all levels. Records in the possession of public agencies in Tennessee are open to perusal by the public unless they are specifically exempted by statute or case law. Records are defined as any documents, no matter the physical form which are “made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by any governmental agency.”

Any citizen of Tennessee can request public records and a statement of purpose is not required. The Tennessee Open Records Act does not restrict the use of records and allows seven days to respond to records requests. (Tenn. Code Ann. 10-7-503 et seq.)

Under all applicable Tennessee Open Records Laws and Freedom of Information Laws, this is a request for the following:

Any and all emails between, from, or to the following Josiah Holland, Savannah Aiello (June 1, 2020 - September 30, 2020):

“Listening Circles”, “Racism”, “Racial Violence”, “empower”, “bias”, “privilege”

If there are any fees for searching or copying these records, please let me know if the cost will exceed $100. However, I would also like to request a waiver of all fees in that the disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest and will contribute significantly to the public’s understanding of why specific English Language Arts materials were selected for the K-2 and 3-5 students of Williamson County. This information is not being sought for commercial purposes.

The Tennessee Open Records Act requires a response time within seven days. If access to the records will take longer than this amount of time, please let me know.

If you deny any or all of this request, please cite etc specific exemption you feel justifies the refusal to release the information and notify me of the appeal procedures available to me under the law.

Thank you in advance for complying with this request.

Sincerely,

Cheri Garick
